

Upper Mustang Trek

Remote culture-focused trekking in Nepal's trans-Himalayan region

Duration 12 to 16 days	Difficulty Moderate
Best Season March to November	Style Restricted region, culture, remote trekking

Package Overview

A journey into Nepal's trans-Himalayan desert with ancient monasteries, dramatic cliffs, Tibetan-influenced culture, and the walled city of Lo Manthang.

Highlights

- Explore the remote Upper Mustang landscape
- Visit ancient monasteries, villages, caves, and desert cliffs
- Experience Tibetan-influenced culture and the walled city of Lo Manthang
- Travel with restricted-area permit planning and local support

Planning Notes

- Restricted-area permits, guide support, transport, and lodge planning should be confirmed in advance.
- Best suited for travelers comfortable with remote routes, dry conditions, and moderate trekking days.

For dates, group size, comfort level, and quotation, contact KK International Travel & Tours directly.

This downloadable overview is a planning guide. Final arrangements are confirmed after enquiry and availability checks.